Tournament Training Program

Designed for Young Players and High Level Tournament Players who compete in District, Regional and National tournaments.

Our Tournament Training Program is taught by the area's top professionals:

- Brady Crosby, Co-Director of Tournament Training
- Justin Rossi, Co-Director of Tournament Training
- Ricky Brown, Director of Tennis
- Joe Brennan, Assistant Director of Tennis
- Marimar Alonso, USTA Team Tennis Coordinator
- Ed Nagel
- Adam Williams

All levels of this program will consist of two hours of intense training including high level drills, match play, point play, footwork, and fitness.

The fitness segment of the program will be directed by top certified sports trainers specializing in sport specific training.

Spring (12 weeks):

March 26—June 17

(omit April 1, May 27-28)

The progression of the Tournament Training Program is Young Players, then Tuesday/Thursday Tournament Training, then Monday/Wednesday Tournament Training.

Tuesday/Thursday Tournament Training groups will consist of high school varsity level players and tournament players with a focus on SEMTA level tournaments.

Monday/Wednesday Tournament Training groups will consist of Midwest and Nationally ranked players with the goal of playing college tennis in their future.

Placement in the Tournament Training program and specific group requires approval from the Co-directors.
