

INTRODUCING OUR NEW MASSAGE THERAPIST!

Meet Dana Watkins, a licensed massage therapist in the state of Michigan and a 2019 graduate of Irene's Myomassology Institute. Despite being new to the practice, Dana has quickly gained a reputation for her surprisingly strong touch earning the nicknames of "tiny but mighty" and "two knuckles". Her deep tissue massages are especially popular, while she also excels in relaxation and sports massage, which include stretching and range of motion therapy.
